

Description

VIC-802 Manual Call Point are designed to offer uncompromising quality & reliability regardless of configurations in the aspect of installation efficiency, flexibility & full compliance with the latest EN54-11. To facilitated the compability to majority of central control equipment manufactured in the world. The Call Point are constructed from Fire Retardants ABS engineering plastic thrus withstand high impact strength & high resistance to heat.

ENS4-11. Certified & CE Marked

Features

- Each contact provided doutde terminal for independent input and output connections especially for looping to ensures perfect continuity
- Variety of colours available
- Special tool operating test facility
- Simple hut secure and comply with health and Safely requirement
- Protective film on glass thus protecting the operator from glass fragments

Dimensional Drawing

